Course Description	Introductory German B is an elementary level German language course for students with one semester or equivalent of German language acquisition behind them. Together with Introductory German A, it serves as the gateway to the introductory sequence in German Studies. Based on a communicative and task-based approach, it is designed to develop proficiency in oral and written communication skills and to provide students with knowledge and understanding of the societies and culture of German-speaking countries. Students develop their listening and speaking skills through a number of different activities, as well as their reading and writing skills. Vocabulary and grammatical structures are presented in the context of culturally and socially relevant issues. Topics include communication, travel, personal information and cultural activities. A lecture on basic grammatical and linguistic features (and occasionally on Contemporary Germany) complements exercises and discussions conducted as target-language activities in tutorials.
Course Aims	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The intention of this course is to enable students to develop linguistic and communicative competencies at the introductory level.</li> <li>2. Through language study students will develop an informed understanding of experiences, cultures, societies and world views of German-speaking countries.</li> </ol>
Student Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. to speak, write, listen to, and read in German at basic level</li> <li>2. to become engaged with topics important in the German-speaking countries</li> <li>3. to appreciate and to critically evaluate the cultural production of the German-speaking countries</li> <li>4. to gain a better understanding of oneself and one's environment by examining comparable socio-historical and cultural experiences in the German-speaking countries</li> </ol>
Graduate Attributes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. effective communication and presentation skills</li> <li>2. analytical and critical thinking</li> <li>3. research skills and information technology/literacy</li> <li>4. respect for and appreciation of diversity/contribute to international community</li> </ol>

3. Learning and Teaching Rationale

The lecture content is divided between the presentation of grammatical topics and the presentation of cultural material covered in the course. The textbook chosen for this course features a variety of structured grammatical, conversational and writing exercises. The book is a good reference grammar that can be used for other purposes as well, particularly for self-study and ongoing review.

Classroom discussions in German provide grammar and vocabulary to develop topics relevant to the German-speaking societies of Europe and provide opportunities for students to express themselves in relation to their own backgrounds and experiences and with regard to their socio-cultural environment. As much as possible, the vocabulary and the topics of the texts will feature in both the grammar work as well as the class tests and the written assignments.

4. Teaching Strategies

The language of instruction is predominantly German (with the exception of some explanation of grammatical features) so that students develop their listening skills. A variety of additional materials (for reading, listening and discussion) as well as different learning approaches (group presentations, group discussions, individual assignments) are used in the tutorials to provide extensive opportunities to listen to, read, speak and write in German. The communicative approach as well as contemporary and authentic texts (written or spoken) enable the students to learn a very authentic use of the German language combined with cultural and historical knowledge. The online materials provide students with explicit practice with vocabulary and grammar (morphology, syntax). Students gather and process information from a variety of paper, audio-visual and electronic sources. They use IT effectively both as a means of communication and as an aid to learning as well as to demonstrate some ability as an independent learner.

5. Course Assessment

Assessment Task	Length	Weight	Learning Outcomes Assessed	Graduate Attributes Assessed	Due Date
Quiz 1	15mins	10%	1	1, 3	18 August
Writing Task	35mins	15%	1, 2, 3	1, 2, 3, 4	1 September
Test	1hr	20%	1, 2	1, 2, 3	22 September
Quiz 2	15mins	10%	1	1, 3	13 October
Speaking assessment	10mins	15%	1, 2, 3	1, 4	22 October
Final Exam	2hrs	30%	1, 2	1, 2, 4	7-22 November

Please Note: In addition to fulfilling the above assessment requirements, students are expected to attend at least 80% of their lectures and tutorials in order to pass the course.

Formal Examination

This course has a formal examination which will be scheduled in the formal examination period from 7 – 22 November 2014. Students are expected to give their studies priority and this includes making themselves available for the entire examination period. Travel commitments made prior to the publication of the final examination timetable are not a valid reason for alternate assessment.

Grades

All results are reviewed at the end of each semester and may be adjusted to ensure equitable marking across the School.

The proportion of marks lying in each grading range is determined not by any formula or quota system, but by the way that students respond to assessment tasks and how well they meet the objectives of the course. Nevertheless, since higher grades imply performance that is well above average, the number of distinctions and high distinctions awarded in a typical course is relatively small. At the other extreme, on average 6.1% of students do not meet minimum standards and a little more (8.6%) in first year courses. For more information on the grading categories see

<https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/academiclife/assessment/GuideToUNSWGrades.html>

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Assignments which are submitted to the School Assignment Box must have a properly completed School Assessment Coversheet, with the declaration signed and dated by hand. The Coversheet can be downloaded from <https://hal.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/>. It is your responsibility to make a backup copy of the assignment prior to submission and retain it.

Assignments must be submitted before 4:00pm on the due date. Assignments received after this time will be marked as having been received late.

Late Submission of Assignments

Late assignments will attract a penalty. Of the total mark, 3% will be deducted each day for the first week, with Saturday and Sunday counting as two days, and 10% each week thereafter.

The penalty may not apply where students are able to provide documentary evidence of illness or serious misadventure. Time pressure resulting from undertaking assignments for other courses does not constitute an acceptable excuse for lateness.

6. Attendance/Class Clash

Attendance

Students are expected to be regular and punctual in attendance at all classes in the courses in which they are enrolled. Explanations of absences from classes or requests for permission to be absent from classes should be discussed with the teacher and where applicable accompanied by a medical certificate. If students attend less than 80% of their possible classes they may be refused final assessment.

Students who falsify their attendance or falsify attendance on behalf of another student will be dealt with under the student misconduct policy.

Class Clash

A student who is approved a permissible clash must fulfil the following requirements:

- a. The student must provide the Course Convenor with copies of lecture notes from those lectures missed on a regular basis as agreed by the Course Convenor and the student.
- b. If a student does attend a lecture for which they had secured a permitted clash they will still submit lecture notes as evidence of attendance.
- c. Failure to meet these requirements is regarded as unsatisfactory performance in the course and a failure to meet the Faculty's course attendance requirement. Accordingly, Course Convenors will fail students who do not meet this performance/attendance requirement.
- d. Students must attend the clashed lecture on a specific date if that lecture contains an assessment task for the course such as a quiz or test. Inability to meet this requirement would be grounds for a Course Convenor refusing the application. If the student misses the said lecture there is no obligation on the Course Convenor to schedule a make-up quiz or test and the student can receive zero for the assessment task. It should be noted that in many courses a failure to complete an assessment task can be grounds for course failure.

7. Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is presenting someone else's thoughts or work as your own. It can take many forms, from not having appropriate academic referencing to deliberate cheating.

In many cases plagiarism is the result of inexperience about academic conventions. The University has resources and information to assist you to avoid plagiarism.

The Learning Centre assists students with understanding academic integrity and how to not plagiarise. Information is available on their website: <http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/plagiarism/>. They also hold workshops and can help students one-on-one.

If plagiarism is found in your work when you are in first year, your lecturer will offer you assistance to improve your academic skills. They may ask you to look at some online resources, attend the Learning Centre, or sometimes resubmit your work with the problem fixed. However, more serious instances in first year, such as stealing another student's work or paying someone to do your work, may be investigated under the Student Misconduct Procedures.

Repeated plagiarism (even in first year), plagiarism after first year, or serious instances, may also be investigated under the Student Misconduct Procedures. The penalties under the procedures can include a reduction in marks, failing a course or for the most serious matters (like plagiarism in an Honours thesis) or even suspension from the university. The Student Misconduct Procedures are available here:

<http://www.gs.unsw.edu.au/policy/documents/studentmisconductprocedures.pdf>

All students should be treated fairly in the course of their studies at UNSW. Students who feel they have not been dealt with fairly should, in the first instance, attempt to resolve any issues with their tutor or the course convenors.

If such an approach fails to resolve the matter, the School of Humanities and Languages has an academic member of staff who acts as a Grievance Officer for the School. This staff member is identified on the notice board in the School of Humanities and Languages. Further information about UNSW grievance procedures is available at:
