2. Course Details

Units of Credit (UoC): 6 UOC

Course Description: This course examines cultural changes in Korea and Japan in the late 19th to early 20th centuries, focusing on how changes in Japan affected Korea and how Korea, in turn, responded to the challenges posed by Japan. Special attention will be given to the relationship and purposes of Japanese cultural reform in Korea and Korean “cultural nationalism” in its mature form.

Course Aims
1. To investigate in comparative perspective cultural changes in Korea and Japan in the late 19th to early 20th centuries, and their effects on each other.
2. To meet the needs of students in the Japanese & Korean programs, and providing the necessary background for understanding the relationship of Japan and Korea in the broader context of East Asia.

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Analyse the relationship between the experiences of modernity in Japan and Korea
2. Articulate the role of culture in historical development (e.g., cultural nationalism in Korea as a response to Japanese cultural and political imperialism)
3. Analyse the relationship between civilization and the individual (e.g., individual thinkers appropriation and/or rejection of “tradition”)

Graduate Attributes
1. The skills involved in scholarly enquiry.
2. The capacity for analytical and critical thinking.
3. The ability to engage in independent and reflective learning.
4. The skills for effective communication and information
3. Learning and Teaching Rationale

The content and approach to learning/teaching in this course enables students to develop an ability to analyze key historical/cultural interactions that shaped Japan and Korea at the start of the twentieth century and which affect their relations to this day. It is the instructor’s view that knowledge of these historical/cultural connections and facility in communicating them will enhance students’ development in their individual disciplines and programs. As a consequence, the assessment strategies used in the course are complementary. The exams emphasize core knowledge, which is a key component in the identified Learning Outcomes and Graduate Attributes, while the Tutorial Leadership and Critical Review emphasize the development of essential research skills (i.e., scholarly enquiry, analytical/critical thinking, independent learning, and effective communication).

4. Teaching Strategies

This course uses a blended approach of Lectures and Tutorials, organized around key readings as contained in the Course Reader. Students are expected to have completed the readings before attending Lectures and come to Tutorials prepared to discuss the readings.

Additional Points

Re: In-class exams: Students are expected to be on time for the exams.

Re: Direction of Tutorial: At least once during the session, each student is required to lead a tutorial. Each student is advised to look over the course outline and decide which week’s reading most appeals to him or her. Students will be given a sign-up sheet so that they may select the week/topic of their choice. The purpose of this exercise is to provide students with a venue to formulate their own questions, which is a key component in the skills of research and critical analysis.

Re: In Class Essay/Critical Review: Students will receive an essay question relating to central themes covered in the course up to that point. Although students will be allowed to use the Course Reader for specific details, the question itself will require that the student has done the readings and is able to demonstrate his/her understanding of the various topics addressed in the course. The structure of this assessment will provide students with flexibility to focus on their own areas of interest while demonstrating skills developed over the course of the Semester. This will be discussed further in class.

Additional points of guidance regarding the Critical Review will be discussed at greater length in the first weeks of the course.

Grades

All results are reviewed at the end of each semester and may be adjusted to ensure equitable marking across the School.

The proportion of marks lying in each grading range is determined not by any formula or quota system, but by the way that students respond to assessment tasks and how well they meet the objectives of the course. Nevertheless, since higher grades imply performance that is well above average, the number of distinctions and high distinctions awarded in a typical course is relatively small. At the other extreme, on average 6.1% of students do not meet minimum standards and a little more (8.6%) in first year courses. For more information on the grading categories see https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/academiclife/assessment/GuideToUNSWGrades.html

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Assignments which are submitted to the School Assignment Box must have a properly completed School Assessment Coversheet, with the declaration signed and dated by hand. The Coversheet can be downloaded from https://hal.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/. It is your responsibility to make a backup copy of the assignment prior to submission and retain it.

Assignments must be submitted before 4:00pm on the due date. Assignments received after this time will be marked as having been received late.

Late Submission of Assignments
Late assignments will attract a penalty. Of the total mark, 3% will be deducted each day for the first week, with Saturday and Sunday counting as two days, and 10% each week thereafter.

The penalty may not apply where students are able to provide documentary evidence of illness or serious misadventure. Time pressure resulting from undertaking assignments for other courses does not constitute an acceptable excuse for lateness.

6. Attendance/Class Clash

Attendance

Students are expected to be regular and punctual in attendance at all classes in the courses in which they are enrolled. Explanations of absences from classes or requests for permission to be absent from classes should be discussed with the teacher and where applicable accompanied by a medical certificate. If students attend less than 80% of their possible classes they may be refused final assessment.

Students who falsify their attendance or falsify attendance on behalf of another student will be dealt with under the student misconduct policy.

Class Clash

A student who is approved a permissible clash must fulfil the following requirements:

a. The student must provide the Course Convenor with copies of lecture notes from those lectures missed on a regular basis as agreed by the Course Convenor and the student.

b. If a student does attend a lecture for which they had secured a permitted clash they will still submit lecture notes as evidence of attendance.

c. Failure to meet these requirements is regarded as unsatisfactory performance in the course and a failure to meet the Faculty’s course attendance requirement. Accordingly, Course Convenors will fail students who do not meet this performance/attendance requirement.

d. Students must attend the clashed lecture on a specific date if that lecture contains an assessment task for the course such as a quiz or test. Inability to meet this requirement would be grounds for a Course Convenor refusing the application. If the student misses the said lecture there is no obligation on the Course Convenor to schedule a make-up quiz or test and the student can receive zero for the assessment task. It should be noted that in many courses a failure to complete an assessment task can be grounds for course failure.

7. Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is presenting someone else’s thoughts or work as your own. It can take many forms, from not having appropriate academic referencing to deliberate cheating.

In many cases plagiarism is the result of inexperience about academic conventions. The University has resources and information to assist you to avoid plagiarism.

The Learning Centre assists students with understanding academic integrity and how to not plagiarise. Information is available on their website: http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/plagiarism/. They also hold workshops and can help students one-on-one.

If plagiarism is found in your work when you are in first year, your lecturer will offer you assistance to improve your academic skills. They may ask you to look at some online resources, attend the Learning Centre, or sometimes resubmit your work with the problem fixed. However, more serious instances in first year, such as stealing another student’s work or paying someone to do your work, may be investigated under the Student Misconduct Procedures.

Repeated plagiarism (even in first year), plagiarism after first year, or serious instances, may also be investigated under the Student Misconduct Procedures. The penalties under the procedures can include a reduction in marks, failing a course or for the most serious matters (like plagiarism in an Honours thesis) or even suspension from the university. The Student Misconduct Procedures are available here: http://www.gs.unsw.edu.au/policy/documents/studentmisconductprocedures.pdf

| Websites: Students are encouraged to make use of the Cambridge History of Japan, available online through UNSW Library. High-quality online resources for all aspects of Korean history and culture are increasingly available, although much is in Korean. One place to start is through: http://koreanculture.org.au/research-hub/library/nal. |

10. Course Evaluation and Development

Courses are periodically reviewed and students’ feedback is used to improve them. Feedback is gathered using various means including UNSW’s Course and Teaching Evaluation and Improvement (CATEI) process.

11. Student Support

The Learning Centre is available for individual consultation and workshops on academic skills. Find out more by visiting the Centre’s website at: http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au
12. Grievances

All students should be treated fairly in the course of their studies at UNSW. Students who feel they have not been dealt with fairly should, in the first instance, attempt to resolve any issues with their tutor or the course convenors.

If such an approach fails to resolve the matter, the School of Humanities and Languages has an academic member of staff who acts as a Grievance Officer for the School. This staff member is identified on the notice board in the School of Humanities and languages. Further information about UNSW grievance procedures is available at: https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/atoz/Complaints.html

13. Other Information

myUNSW is the online access point for UNSW services and information, integrating online services for applicants, commencing and current students and UNSW staff. To visit myUNSW please visit either of the below links:

OHS
UNSW's Occupational Health and Safety Policy requires each person to work safely and responsibly, in order to avoid personal injury and to protect the safety of others. For all matters relating to Occupational Health, Safety and environment, see http://www.ohs.unsw.edu.au/

Special Consideration

In cases where illness or other circumstances produce repeated or sustained absence, students should apply for Special Consideration as soon as possible.

The application must be made via Online Services in myUNSW. Log into myUNSW and go to My Student Profile tab > My Student Services channel > Online Services > Special Consideration.

Applications on the grounds of illness must be filled in by a medical practitioner. Further information is available at: https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/atoz/SpecialConsideration.html

Student Equity and Disabilities Unit

Students who have a disability that requires some adjustment in their learning and teaching environment are encouraged to discuss their study needs with the course convener prior to or at the commencement of the course, or with the Student Equity Officers (Disability) in the Student Equity and Disabilities Unit (9385 4734). Information for students with disabilities is available at: http://www.studentequity.unsw.edu.au

Issues that can be discussed may include access to materials, signers or note-takers, the provision of services and additional examination and assessment arrangements. Early notification is essential to enable any necessary adjustments to be made.
