Hosted by the Research Cluster on Imperial, Colonial and Transnational Histories

Program

10:00 - 12:00PM
Morning Session
Chair: Dr Saliha Belmessous
1. Dr Lisa Ford, “Islands without borders: Empire and Order in the Pacific before 1850”
2. Emeritus Prof Martyn Lyons, “The Pyrenees as Frontier Zone: The ‘Freedom Smugglers’ in World War Two”
3. A/Prof Duncan McDuie-Ra, “Ethnicity and Place in a ‘Disturbed City’: Ways of Belonging in Imphal, Manipur”

12:00 - 1:00PM
Lunch Provided

1:00 - 3:00PM
Afternoon Session
Round Table Discussion, “Border Studies and History”
Chair: Prof Mina Roces
A/Prof Duncan McDuie-Ra, “The State of the Field of ‘Border Studies’ in the Social Sciences” (10 minutes)
Discussant: Prof Marc Williams, Comments on Morning Papers (10-15 minutes)
Roundtable Discussion - Participants of the Symposium

3:00PM
Afternoon tea and close

Limited places available. Participants are required to register with Mina Roces (m.roces@unsw.edu.au) by May 15, 2014. Electronic copies of the papers will be circulated to the registered participants around two weeks before the event.